BRAKEMAN'S NARROW ESCAPE

Signaling For His Own Train
Is Knocked From Plat-Form.

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Slight Injuries Sustained But Incapable For Duty For Awhile.

Stanley Collins, a brakeman on an L. & N. freight, came near meeting a horrible death at Latham station, just north of the river, last Sunday afternoon.

He was standing on the rear platform of the caboose of his train signaling his engineer, and of course, was looking intently toward the head of his train. Another freight was switching at the same time on another track. Before Collins knew anything he was struck by the rear car of the other train and knocked off the platform, falling in the space between the two tracks.

When the man was picked up he was unconscious. However, he soon regained consciousness and was brought to the station in this city and Dr. Blakey was summoned by phone. His wounds were dressed and pronounced not of a serious nature, though it will be several days before he will be able to do any work.

Collins' injuries consist of a bruised side, a wound back of the head and a bad cut in the face; his nose is said to have been nearly cut off.

The unfortunate young man's home is in Earlinton. He had a very narrow escape from death, as he fell so near the train on the converging track. The accident, so far as we learn, can not be attributed to the carelessness of Collins or the men of the other train.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Shoulder is Dislocated by Fall From Ladder.

Mr. J. W. Gresham, of this city, was the victim of a very painful accident a few days ago. While doing some painting on a house on Mr. W. H. Boyd's farm, near Newstead, the ladder on which Mr. Gresham was standing gave way, and he fell, a distance of ten feet, dislocating his right shoulder.

Heavy, impure blood makes a muddy, pimply complexion, headaches, nausea, indigestion. Thin blood makes you weak, pale, sickly. Burdock Blood Bitters makes the blood rich, red, pure—restores perfect health.

SUDDEN DEATH OF I. P. DAVIE

Victim of Heart Failure at His Home In This County.

WAS 63 YEARS OLD.

Representative of One of the Leading Pioneer Families.

Mr. Iredell P. Davie, better known as Ide Davie, died very suddenly at his home near Howell Friday afternoon. He had been sick for several days and was lying in a hammock on the lawn and got up and went into the house and told his wife that he was feeling no better. Mrs. Davie went to the phone to call a physician and when she turned back to him she found him gasping for breath and he died as she reached his side, of heart failure.

Mr. Davie was a fine looking man of powerful physique, and was 63 years of age. He came of Revolutionary stock, his grandfather coming to this country in 1819. He became a wealthy planter and served as sheriff one term.

Ide Davie was one of the best educated men in the county, being a graduate of Yale College. He studied law but decided to follow farming as his chosen calling. He owned a fine farm and his library was an excellent one, and from his books he derived much pleasure.

Mr. Davie was a Mason of high standing and was a Past Master of Beverly Lodge.

His brother, Geo. M. Davie, was a leading lawyer of Louisville. Deceased is survived by a wife and three children, one son and two daughters.

The burial took place in the family burying ground. Mr. Davie was not a member of any church.

LITTLE HOPE

That She Can Walk for Many Months.

Gracey, Ky., July 8.—Mrs. M. A. Meacham, who was crippled by a fall last January, is still unable to walk even with a crutch. A consultation of physicians was held last week and a careful examination made and it was found that the worst feature of her injury is muscular soreness and weakness. A massage treatment was prescribed. The hope is held out that she may be able to walk in five or six months more.

BROKE HIS ARM

By a Fall From a Straw
Stack.

William Meacham, a seven-year-old son of Mr. W. F. Meacham, fell from a strawstack Friday at the farm of his grandfather, Mr. M. D. Meacham, and broke his arm at the elbow. A physician reduced the fracture and the boy is getting along nicely.

EASILY PROVED HIS RIGHT

Good Story Told of Thomas Bailey Aldrich and Irish Magistrate He Captivated.

One of the most engaging qualities of the late Thomas Bailey Aldrich's humor was a certain happy impudence.

He delighted to tell of his experience in getting his name reinstated in the voting list of Boston after an absence of a year or two from his Mt. Vernon street home. Appearing before a magistrate of the race that, as Lowell said, "fought all our battles and got up all our draft riots," he was asked his name and occupation, and if he could read. Modestly admitting that he could "read," he was given the Declaration of Independence and told to "read that."

"Begorra," said Aldrich, "I will. 'Whin in the course of human joints—'"

He was facetiously allowed to register—Argonoul.

BRIGHT IDEA WENT WRONG.

An old actor who was not much given to the cheering glass, says the Billboard, one evening went to dine at the club with a friend—met several more, with the result that late in the evening he was "pretty mellow." He left his friends and started home and said to himself: "My boy, you're drunk! What are you going to do about it? I know! I'll go home and read—who ever heard about a drunken man reading?" Well, home he went in a cab—went to the library and commenced to read. Mrs. Actor later appeared on the scene. "What on earth are you doing?" she questioned. "Why—er—can't you see what I'm doing, my dear? I'm reading." "Reading," said his wife scornfully, "what are you reading?" He looked at the book, but couldn't see the words, so he said: "That book's been in the house for the last 20 years, so if you don't know I'm not going to tell you." To this his wife replied wrathfully: "You old fool, shut up that valise and come to bed."

LIMIT OF HUMAN STRENGTH.

Experiments upon a number of men have shown that a man five feet high and weighing 136 pounds will lift on an average 156 pounds through a vertical distance of eight inches, or 217 pounds through a height of 1.2 inches. Others 6.1 feet high and weighing 183 pounds could lift the 156 pounds to a height of 13 inches, or 217 pounds to a height of six inches. Other men six feet three inches high and weighing 188 pounds could lift 156 pounds to a height of 16 inches, or 217 pounds to a height of nine inches. By a great variety of experiments it was shown that the average human strength is equivalent to raising 30 pounds through a distance of two and one-half feet in one second.

AMONG THE ANCIENTS.

The great pyramid of King Cheops was nearing completion. "It's a wonderful structure," remarked the visiting monarch, gazing at it in astonishment. "What's it for, anyway?" "It is, merely—er—the first rude beginning of the modern skyscraper," gravely replied King Cheops. But the truth of the matter was that he had mislaid his copy of Baedeker and couldn't remember to save his life what his original idea was in building the thing.

ANOTHER REAL BOY.

Donald had come home from a day's visit with a relative. "Mamma," he wailed, "I'm hungry!" "Hungry, dear? Didn't Aunt Belinda give you anything to eat?" "Yes, she gave me some lemon fish, but I didn't like 'em." "Lemon fish? For pity's sake, what are lemon fish?" "Sourlimes."

The illa peculiar to women, take different form.

Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express.

Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.

Wine of Cardui

Mrs. M. C. Austin, of Memphis, Tenn., writes: "For five (5) years I suffered with every symptom of female disease, but after using the well-known Cardui Home Treatment, I was entirely well."

Railroad Commissioner C. C. McChord's Letter of Advice.

Frankfort, Ky., June 24, 1937.
TERRY COAL & COKE CO.,
Hopkinsville, Ky.
GENTLEMEN:

Replying to your favor of the 14th instant, I unhesitatingly advise all consumers of coal to lay in a supply during the summer months and thereby avoid the inconvenience which must result on account of a shortage of cars next winter which in my opinion will be much more acute than was the shortage of last winter, unless the consumers lay in their coal supply as suggested.

You are at liberty to publish this in the interest of the producers and consumers of Coal.

Yours Very Truly,
C. C. McCHORD, Chairman,
R. R. Commission State of Ky.
The railroad and coal operating officials of Western Kentucky have given out the same official notice, and urge us to advise our stockholders and customers to lay in their coal this summer.

Last winter's experience and high prices, together with the above timely information should be sufficient warning, and we trust our people will take advantage of it and act at once.

We are ready to supply you with coal in car-load lots over either R. R. any day "the best coal at summer time prices," and trust that you will give us your orders early while we can get the cars to ship in.

Yours Very Truly,

The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Partly cloudy and continued warm Tuesday.

George Essex, of Hardin county, Ky., has set the paragraphs to saying some entirely original things by marrying his mother-in-law.

A couple of Kansas City, admirers of the Longworths, have named their twins Alice and Nick.

Miss Margaret Frey, of Denver, Colorado, has been awarded the honor of being the most beautiful woman in America. She is 19 years old and a blond of the purest type.

The campaign next year will be pitched upon three great issues—
Trusts, Tariff and Transportation.
Mr. Bryan says they all stand for one idea, viz: Whether the government shall be administered in the interest of a few favorites or in behalf of the whole people.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constant failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable.
Science has proven catarrh a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally and in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucus surfaces of the system.
They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constitution.

General Debility

Day in and day out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself.
Food does not strengthen.
Sleep does not refresh.
It is hard to do, hard to bear, what should be easy—vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers.
For this condition take

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It vitalizes the blood and gives vigor and tone to all the organs and functions.
In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsaparilla, 100 doses $1.

When Judge Henry B. Hines was selected to act as chairman of the State Campaign Committee a splendid day's work for Democracy was performed.
In no political contest where he has engaged has he ever failed to secure every vote possible and this year will prove no exception. One secret of the success which has attended Judge Hines is the fact that he is as true to his friends as is the proverbial needle to the pole, and possessing unbounded energy he begins a fight from the start and never relaxes his efforts.
With a splendid ticket to aid him he will win a great victory this fall and demonstrate Executive Democracy to which a limited few may lay claim.
—Franklin Favorite.

The inquiry conducted by Judge
Landis at Chicago into the standing and financial resources of the Standard Oil Company commenced and was finished Saturday inside of two hours. The evidence was taken despite the strenuous objections of the attorneys. The chief witness was John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Very little information was derived from him. He declared he had not been in active business for twelve years, and said he had not been in the offices of the Standard Oil Company for eight years.

G. T. Wyatt was nominated as the Democratic candidate for the State Senate in the districts composed of Todd, Simpson and Logan counties, at a district convention in South Union. Simpson county was not represented. C. C. Pare was a candidate and the nomination of Wyatt seems to have been in defiance of party authority. The committee rescinded the first call and was preparing to order a different settlement of the contest that had developed but two counties refused to accept the change.

Brian Hooker, a young writer whose work has already begun to attract some attention, is the author of the novelties which opens in the July Smart Set. His story is entitled "Steel" and deals in quite an original way with a love affair on ship-board. A situation of great power is revealed at the outset and the unusual method with which the author carries his story along keeps the unflagging interest of the reader.

"Madisonville is to have the third bank to be called the Savings Bank."
Wake up, Bro. Meacham. Madisonville has had three banks for the past six years and now has five, namely: Morton's Bank, Hopkins Co. Bank, The Kentucky Bank &
Trust Co., Morton's National Bank and The Farmer's National Bank and the articles of incorporation are now being prepared for the Savings Bank you speak of.—Madisonville Hustler.

That a hen-pecked man may die
was demonstrated at Anderson, Ind., when Joseph B. Bryan, aged 59 years, a retired building contractor, died in great agony from blood poisoning that developed at a point in his scalp, where a hen had pecked him so fiercely that blood had flowed.
Bryan had undertaken to lift the hen from her nest when she attacked him. Despite his efforts at defense she flew upon his head and sank her bill into his scalp.

In an altercation on the street at Lexington, Saturday, ex-Senator
J. Brown fired four shots at W.
J. Milward, Sr. One was stopped by keys in the latter's pocket, while the others went wild. The arrest of both men followed. The trouble arose it is said, over recent domestic troubles of Bronston. His wife, who was Miss Belle Wisdom, of Paducah, recently left him.

STANLEY'S ELOQUENCE

Was Desired by the Braves
of Tammany Hall.

Tammany Hall, New York, June
25, 1907.
Hon. Augustus O. Stanley,
Henderson, Ky.,
Dear Sir:

On the Fourth of July next the Society of Tammany Hall at 10 o'clock, a. m. will hold its celebration of the One Hundred and Thirty-first Anniversary of American Independence. The occasion is designed to be of exceptional significance and extended effect.

We earnestly desire the favor of your personal presence and give you this urgent invitation to attend and address the meeting.
Should your attendance be impossible, we would value an expression of your views appropriate to the One Hundred and Thirty-first Anniversary of our Country's Independence.

Yours very respectfully,
THOS. F. SMITH, Secretary.
W. BOURKE COCKRAN,
Grand Sachem.
CHARLES F. MURPHY,
DANIEL F. McMAHON,
LOUIS F. HAFEN,
JOHN J. SCANNELL,
TIMOTHY D. SULLIVAN,
Committee.

ORDINANCE NO. 68.

Be it ordained by the Board of Council of the city of Hopkinsville,
Ky.:

That the license tax on each automobile, run for hire, within the city of Hopkinsville, be and the same is hereby fixed at the sum of $10.00 per annum. All revenues derived from licenses shall be paid into the city Treasury and placed to the credit of the general revenue fund of said city.

Any person, firm or corporation violating the provision of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $25.00 and not more than $100.00 for each offense.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its adoption, approval and publication.

Adopted, July 5th, 1907.

H. W. TIBBS, Clerk.

Approved, July 6th, 1907.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Mayor.

BITTER AT CYNTHIANA.

Attempt Made This Morning
to Arrest Preachers and Prominent Men.

Cynthiana, Ky., July 6.—The local option fight in this city and county is becoming bitter. An attempt was made this morning to arrest the Rev. T. H. Plennmons, the Rev. J. L. Clark and several other prominent men, on the charge of obstructing the highways.

They were erecting a tent for local option services in court square.

How to Cure Chills.

"To enjoy freedom from chillains," writes John Kemp, East Otis-field, Me., "I apply Bucken's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at
R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

With Forbes Mfg Co.

Mr. John Ducker has accepted a position in the hardware department of the Forbes Mfg Co. Mr. Ducker is the oldest son of C. W. Ducker, the carriage man. He came here from Warrenton, N. C., where he had been in the hardware business for one year and two years before going to Warrenton he was in the same business at Henderson, N. C. Mr. Ducker is a competent and industrious young man and there is no doubt that he will "make good" with the large concern in which he may be found.

The Right Name.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular overseer of the poor, at Fort Madison, Ia. says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills, are rightly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any other laxative." Guaranteed to cure biliousness and constipation. 25c at
R. C. Hardwick's drug store.

HORRIBLE DEATH OF A FARMER

Esley Quine, of Lafayette,
Sustains Fatal Injuries
By A Fall.

HE WAS HAULING HAY

Team Ran Off And Victim's Neck Was Broken And Skull Crushed.

Mr. J. Esley Quine, a farmer of near Lafayette, was instantly killed about 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, his neck being broken and his skull crushed.

The fatal accident occurred on the farm of Mr. J. W. McClain, one mile north of Lafayette.

Mr. Quine and Mr. McClain were hauling hay, a little grandson of the latter being on the loaded wagon with Mr. Quine. The team of mules became frightened at some object and started to run.

Mr. Quine gathered the lines, but seeing that he and the child would fall, he threw the boy off and the little fellow escaped with a few bruises. Mr. Quine, however, fell between the mules and was killed as above stated.

The victim of the accident was forty-three years old and a man liked by everyone who knew him. He had been engaged in farming for several years and moved to Lafayette from the Julien neighborhood some years ago.

He leaves a widow and two small children.

AGED NEGRO

Dies While Sitting in His Door Way.

Jo Buckner, col., aged about sixty years, was found dead at his home near Cates' mill. When members of the family retired, Buckner was sitting in the door. Later an attempt was made to arouse him and it was found that he had expired. He had been complaining of pains in his head for several days. The coroner held an inquest Sunday and the verdict of the jury was that death was due to some unknown cause.

Help the Horse
No article is more useful about the stable than Mica Axle Grease. Put a little on the rollers before you "load" up. It will help the horse, and bring the load home quicker.

MICA AXLE GREASE

There's nothing better than any other grease. Costs the same as lard. Keeps the rollers powdered which reduces friction. Lasts the longest for Mica Axle Grease.

SATURDAY, JULY 13th, at 8. a. m.

Winter's lingering in the lap of spring did it. Perhaps you remember that when we expected pleasant weather early in the season, it rained, then it rained again, and then it rained between rains and all at the time when we should have been selling spring things. This short season leaves our stock too large. NOW THINGS MUST GO. New season and new stock in view. Plenty of time to wear light weights, but short time to sell them. So here goes. The more you buy, the more money you make, goods advancing all the time, but this stock must be sold regardless of prices to make room for the fall goods. That is the whole story. Remember the time and the place. The doors will open promptly at 8 O'CLOCK, SATURDAY, JULY 13, '07.

J. T. Wall & Co. are preeminently the sales makers of Hopkinsville, an acknowledged fact that when they do put on a sale it is a real genuine money saver for the people. No fake. No old dilapidated goods bought to work off on Christian county people at a profit. Our sales have always been a success because we do all we promise and even more. This is an opportunity that you can't afford to miss. Everything marked in plain figures. Hundreds of bargains that we haven't space for on paper.
